

THE Cossington Concerts

presents

two exciting, pre-season concerts by two generations of exceptional young artists at the new Cossington Village Hall

14 JANUARY

18 FEBRUARY

www.cossingtonconcerts.com

WEST-EASTERN DIVAN

Saturday 14 January, 7.30 pm

Jennifer France soprano

finalist in the Oxford Lieder Young Artist Platform Competition, 2011

Stuart Jackson tenor

2nd prize winner at the Wigmore Hall Song Competition, 2011

Martin Häßler baritone

2nd prize winner at the International Das Lied Competition in Berlin, 2011

Sanaz Sotoudeh pianist

Royal Academy of Music postgraduate degree in Piano Accompaniment, 2011 performing German Lieder inspired by Johann Wolfgang Goethe's 'West-Östliches Divan' (1814-19) and 'The Divan' poetry by the 14th-century Persian mystic Hafiz. Sanaz Sotoudeh, who is of Persian-Jewish descent, is collaborating with Daniel Barenboim and his 'West-Eastern Divan' Orchestra.

A Showcase of Top-level Students from CHETHAM'S SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Saturday 18 February, 7.30 pm including a violinist, cellist, clarinettist, singer and pianist as well as the winner of the 2008 BBC Young Musician of the Year competition, trombonist Peter Moore.

TICKETS

£15 and £10, or £20 for both concerts

(students free of charge)

available from

Marian Curry 01278 683777